Huston Patterson Names Bolen, Robinson & Ellis Vendor of the Year

DECATUR, ILL. – Huston Patterson Corporation officials recently honored the law firm of Bolen Robinson & Ellis, LLP as its 2009 Vendor of the Year. The annual award was presented at a recent company luncheon.

“Each and every year selecting our Vendor of the Year is a difficult challenge,” noted Huston Patterson President / CEO Thomas W. Kowa during the event at company headquarters in Decatur. “This year was a clear cut decision as they did some amazing things for our companies including winning a decisive case in front of the Illinois Supreme Court. BRE are always there with good, solid legal advice at anytime of any day we need advice. I commend them and look forward to working with them for years to come.”

Huston Patterson management nominates vendors for the award each year based on five criteria: timeliness, service, reliability, cooperation and quality. Cost is not included. Out of 400 Huston Patterson vendors, five were named finalists. Accompanying Bolen Robinson & Ellis as finalists were NICOAT, Superior Printing Inks, Wikoff Color and Printer’s Service. Kowa continued, “All our Vendor of the Year finalist could have won this prestigious award as they all contribute tremendously to our printing companies. We can be very demanding and I don’t see that ever not being the case. In order to be nominated, and then to become one of our finalist is quite a tribute to the outstanding vendors we have selected to do business with.”
